

The Penguin Lane

Antarctica's most exclusive neighborhood

The Penguin Lane LLC does not plant any tree in The Penguin Lane.

Have you ever dreamed of being waken up by a bunch of lovely, screaming penguins every morning? Do you lust midnight sunbathing in summer? If you answered yes to both questions, then The Penguin Lane is your dream come true.

Located on White Island, The Penguin Lane is Antarctica's most exclusive neighborhood, only a 7.3 miles off the Antarctica coast. The Penguin Lane has a luxurious scenery made up by tons and tons of purest, whitest snow you will ever see and its civilized climate will set you free from the central air conditioning slavery. Also, The Penguin Lane is a seafront community, meaning you will have the whole Antarctic Ocean just for you early morning, before work swimming.

The Penguin Lane Amenities

1. State-of-art snow sculpturing service. Instead of gardeners, you will have a well-prepared team of snow sculpturers.
2. An innovative public transportation service. The Penguin Lake is the first

- neighborhood on Earth to use Sledgebus, a friendly, no CO₂ emitting vehicle.
3. A filial of O Globo newspaper, winner of the 2009 Family Law Reporting Impartiality Award.
 4. Legal, paralegal assistance by the Tostes Law Firm.

The Penguin Lane Location

The Penguin Lane is located only 15.34 miles (24.68 km) off the Antarctica coast and it's near from the Amundsen Bay. Talking about beach, The Penguin Lane is just 4,815 miles (7,750 km) away from Rio de Janeiro and 4,419 miles (7,112 km) away from Sidney, Australia. If you aren't in a ski mood, then you should know The Penguin Lane is just 68.71 miles (110 km) away from Tula Mountains, Antarctica ski best kept secret.

